Principal's Update

- Discussion of Option C, group is not completely satisfied. One specific complaint is that assignments disappear before the due date.
- Tom shared the amount of praise recently for the students from visitors including Everybody Counts, Adoration and 6-8 grades recent off campus trips.
- Grade 7 will host a Veteran's Breakfast on Friday, Nov 11. Coordinated by Christy Taylor. Ideas were generated to get the word out to the community. Parents will provide the breakfast food.
- Missy shared details about parents' collection of money for a Cincinnati themed gift for Kelly Gulleman.
- Visitors from Holy Land will visit on 10/5 and spend a half day on each campus, ending the day with the Rosary at Seton. PTO will provide lunch for visitors.

August Minutes approved by Angela, Becky

Labels for Education, presented by Kim Rack

- Opportunity to earn product by collecting labels and by participating in other contests sponsored by Labels for Education. Kim is willing to chair this committee this year and submit all entries. Vast number of products who participate.

September Feedback

- Everybody Counts, -Tracy Schaeffer chaired for the last year. Missy will ask Ericka Steffen if she would like to chair next year. The pony was a big hit!
